Providing direction to victims of domestic violence

Whispers and Roars Artwork/Written Prose Release & Submission Form

I, _____, hereby grant Crisis Center North (CCN) and the North Hills Art Center (NHAC) permission to exhibit my personal artwork created during my group art/writing sessions, art/writing classes, and/or during my personal time. I understand that my artwork or written prose will be on display or presented in/at the “Whispers and Roars” exhibit, a display of works of artistic expression with domestic violence, sexual assault, and healing. NHAC and CCN are not responsible for any damage, loss or theft of an art piece.

I understand that my work will remain anonymous, unless otherwise given the permission to use identifying information. (See back of form)

I agree and understand the benefits and disadvantages of displaying private artwork.

I understand that opening night of the exhibit will be located at the NHAC on October 12th, 2018 at 7pm. The exhibit will remain on display until October 26th, 2018. Submissions are not to be removed from the show for any reason, until the day following the close of the show. Proceeds from artwork sold are split between artist (50%), NHAC (25%), and CCN (25%)

I understand that I must pick up my artwork at the NHAC October 29-November 2, 10am-3pm & October 29, 7-9pm, or at the CCN office by calling to make arrangements. If artwork is not picked-up from CCN by December 31, 2018, or if further arrangements are not made, the artwork will become the property of CCN.

I understand that I have to right to revoke the permissions given above by October 5th, 2018. If you wish to revoke this release or need any other information, please contact:
